Ontario's Natural Serenity with David T. Chapman

Date and Time: Sunday, October 20 2:00 pm - 3:00 pm

Address: 201 Owen Sound St.

In this stunning presentation we will be taking a peaceful journey through what this vast province has to offer. At first we will explore some of the many rivers, waterfalls and lakes, looking at how you can time it for maximum serenity and beauty. In the following segment, we will be looking at some of the birds and their songs, butterflies and wildlife that we can enjoy in many parts of Ontario. As we close off the presentation, the show will focus on weather as well as night photography, which will include a segment on the aurora borealis as well as some other rare weather phenomena. As with all of David's presentations, there will be a few surprise segments along the way, using both photos and videos that will suit this relaxing, yet exciting and educational theme.
